

The application is now available for Young Invincibles' Midwest Spring 2022 Young Advocates Program! The Young Advocates Program (YAP) is a unique, paid leadership development program that trains young adults ages 18-34 in Illinois on ways to address inequities in affordable higher education, healthcare and access to quality jobs.

Advocates will meet virtually via Zoom on Fridays from 11:30am – 3:30pmCT from February 18, 2022 – May 6, 2022, with four hours of work required outside of Fridays. Participants will be paid a rate of $15.00 per hour for training and work over the course of the program.

For more information, the link to our website is here.

If you know any young adults interested in becoming more civically engaged, please share the application with them: <https://forms.gle/qR75zqkqatLH5UeeA>

The application deadline is Monday, January 24, 2022 at 11:59 pmCT.

For any questions, contact Troy Alim, YI's Midwest Engagement Manager at troy.alim@younginvincibles.org

Please share this opportunity widely with your networks! Thank you for helping us spread the word.

Best,

Hannah Keller
